

The EMDR Research Foundation bridges research and practice – in a way that benefits researchers, practitioners, and ultimately, the public. We can all make a difference. Of course, financial contributions are essential - we have more studies to fund than we can currently afford. So please consider giving, giving regularly through the Visionary Alliance monthly giving program and encouraging your colleagues to give. Donate now.

You can also help through the gift of your time and talent by:

- Volunteering with our Fund Development Committee. Board member and committee chair, Dennis Hall, can use help with fundraising efforts, including: Creating strategies for generating funds; Identifying individuals and groups who might be funding sources; Determining potential sources for grants and writing grant proposals. Contact: DennisLHall@gmail.com
- Volunteering for the EMDR Research Foundation Research Committee. Board and committee chair, Tonya Edmond, needs volunteers for the research grant review process. Contact: tee1@wustl.edu
- Volunteering with our Communications Committee. Board members and committee co-chairs, Zona Scheiner and Jim Gach, are looking for someone to volunteer as a copywriter for promotional material and someone with desktop publishing skills to create promotional materials. Contact: jimgach@comcast.net or orzonags@comcast.net
- Volunteering for the Translating Research into Practice Task Group. Board member and task group chair, Katy Murray, needs volunteers for the Translating Research into Practice column (a new regular feature of the Journal of EMDR Practice and Research.) You can help by writing a column, inviting others to write a column, and/or providing editing skills for column submissions. Contact: katymurraymsw@comcast.net
- Volunteering for the Volunteer Committee. Board member and committee chair, Katy Murray, needs help from those with experience in developing and maintaining a strong volunteer pool for this organization. Contact: katymurraymsw@comcast.net
- Expanding our strong Board of Directors. A non-profit organization needs a strong and diverse board – drawing from a range of regions, industries, and experience. If you or someone you know would like to be contribute to the vision of the Foundation, please let Board Development chair, Rosalie Thomas, know of your interest. Recognizing that many hands make light work, our hope is to have volunteers available for everything from data collection to money collection..... grant writing to copy writing..... disseminating research grant monies to disseminating the clinical application of research. We need your help to make this happen!

Contact info@emdrresearchfoundation.org or Katy Murray at katymurraymsw@comcast.net if you are interested in volunteering for the EMDR Research Foundation. No time? Join us as a Visionary Alliance monthly donor, or simply make a one-time donation now.

It is all up to you...you decide your role in this important endeavor!
